

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

by Stanley Orris

A housing shortage has developed in Champion. An official from Regina was in town this week to arrange accommodation for airforce families. The transferring of a bombing school from Regina to Pearce means that accommodation for some 125 families must be secured. As accommodation on the other line is not available, Champion, Carmangay and Barons are expected to provide as many places as possible.

Anyone who has a house available or who has a house that could be pulled into town and fixed up should get in touch with Fred Watts or Stanley Orris immediately. This is an excellent opportunity for anyone having idle property to put it into shape and make it revenue bearing.

We hear that the village council have under consideration paying part of the sidewalk on main street. We believe it is a worthwhile project and will be of benefit to the village and should be proceeded with. It is unfortunate that the whole business area could not be done at one time as it would give an even break to all the merchants instead of some having the benefit of this improvement now while others will have to wait a year or two to have their frontages improved with no assurances that succeeding councils will carry the scheme out.

See you next week.

CHAMPION, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1942

Dan E. Cameron
Talks Producer at CBC's Prairie Region Headquarters in Winnipeg whose interest in radio developed as a result of ten year's teaching experience in rural Saskatchewan where he saw what immense educational opportunities there were in radio. In Winnipeg Mr. Cameron has charge of talks generally, which are heard over station CBK Watrous, 540 Kc.

June 22nd to 29th will be the fourth annual Farm and Home Week to be held at the Olds School of Agriculture at Olds. With restricted travel affecting holiday plans many people will be looking for close at home vacations. A good suggestion would be to spend a week at Olds amid the beautiful and restful surroundings, and at the same time profit by learning new and different means of farming and homemaking.

One insertion is generally all that is needed to sell that machinery or other farm equipment you no longer need. Or if you want to buy something — the classified column is ready to serve you. No matter what it is you want to buy or sell — try a classified. The cost is small.

John Burke-Gaffney

A young man who has deliberately set out to equip himself as a trained and experienced general practitioner of Radio is John Burke-Gaffney, sound effects producer at CBC's Winnipeg studios.

John as you might suspect is of Irish origin, the son of parents who came from Dublin to Winnipeg nearly thirty years ago. He has all the brains, dramatic sense and quick wit of his Irish ancestors, and the pioneering West has endowed him with a capacity for hard work. At twenty he has already been labouring for more than two years at his chosen profession of radio, which he sees as an art and a science requiring dramatic ability, knowledge of music and technical training.

John's sound effects are heard on programs emanating from CBC's station at Watrous.

OPENING OF A SECOND FRONT

The announcement of the mutual assistance treaty signed by Great Britain, Russia and the United States, and its recognition of the necessity of opening a second front in Europe can be regarded as the first manoeuvre of the new and perhaps the decisive phase of the war.

The opening of a second front may mean one or more things. Russia may be finding it more than she can do to withstand the pressure of the unhampered German might particularly with the threat of Japanese aggression on her other border, and a second front now may avert a disaster occurring if Russia was knocked out of the war. On the other hand Britain and the United States may feel they are now sufficiently ready in men and material to commence and maintain a continental undertaking with a good chance of seeing it through to a successful conclusion. If the former is the case, then the situation is discouraging and serious but by no means hopeless, for we would be in a position similar to that following Dunkirk, but with the tremendous difference of possessing a highly trained and mechanized army and an air armada as great as or greater than that of Germany, and also the full and effective assistance of the United States. If the latter is the case then there is much we may be optimistic about over the situation in spite of the fact that the opening of a second front will mean a titanic struggle and a great loss of life. One thing is certain, and that is the fact that a European front would take the full resources of Canada, Great Britain and the United States.

One has only to consider the many problems connected with a second front to realize what an enormous undertaking it is. Air superiority over the whole area involved must be won and maintained; supplies of men and material must be continuously transported over the sea safely to the continent and reinforcements must be moved up at all times to ensure adequate support for our fighting men.

Our part on the home front will be to back the fighters up with everything we have and to accept every sacrifice necessary to provide them with the weapons of victory.

C.P.R. Shopmen Give Gun For Freedom

Canada's mounting share in the fight against the Axis was emphasized by Brigadier F. M. W. Harvey, V.C., Officer Commanding Military District 13, when on Saturday afternoon, May 23rd, he received the 100th naval gun produced at the Canadian Pacific Railway's Ogden Shops, at Calgary, as a gift from the munitions workers there to the nation.

"Let us hope that it goes into action soon," he said, "on a Canadian ship, with Canadian gunners behind its sights."

Although rate of production at Ogden has not been revealed by authorities, the 100th piece of war ordnance came off the assembly line there some time ago. Paying all shop costs and cost of material on this particular gun, the employees presented it to the country in a simple but impressive ceremony marking, as one of the speakers said, a fine spirit of national and industrial solidarity.

The gun itself is an all-purpose naval weapon, designed for use against submarines and surface craft, as well as sky raiders, throwing a shell of approximately 12 pounds from its long barrel.

In receiving the gun from R. Alderman, representative of the shopmen, Brigadier Harvey represented

Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Munitions and Supply for Canada. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company was represented by W. A. Mather, vice-president of Western lines, who officially received from the employees a cheque for shop costs on the gun, and by H. B. Bowen, Chief of Motive Power, from Montreal. J. L. Gubbins, works manager, acted as chairman.

The Guard of Honor was made up of war veterans among the shopmen under Capt. McLennan. Pictures show Brigadier Harvey inspecting the Guard of Honor, the gun and a glimpse of the actual presentation ceremony.
